~ THANK YOU ~

Because of the selfless efforts and compassion of the wonderful volunteers, the event was a great success. You have our sincere thanks!

AND GOD SAYS . . .

What is the place of the church in the world today? How involved should the church, and we as members of the church, be involved in the issues plaguing us today? Should we be content to restrict its message to Jesus Christ as savior, or should we also be involved with the issues of the day that conflict with God's standards of holiness? And if so, to what degree? These questions, among many others, need to be answered if we, as believers in Christ, are going properly impact the world for Christ.

First, let me say that I believe that the church is to be the standard setter for righteousness in the world. Just as in the physical creation, the sun is to rule over the day and the moon over the night in Genesis 1:16, so Christ, the light of the world, is to rule over the church. And we as believers are of the day (1 Thessalonians 5:4-8) and are to rule over the night. That means we are to be the standard setters for the world. We cannot do that if we do not speak out on the issues of the day that conflict with God's standards of righteousness.

Secondly, I understand that the world will not like our stand. They will say that our standards limit their freedoms, that we cannot legislate righteousness, that we are being judgmental, and on and on. And, oh yes, there is the whole issue of the separation of church and state. That is a favorite. I understand that. I wish we could more fully deal with these criticisms, but this is not my purpose today, except to say that I am aware of all of them and am not dissuaded by them. There are answers for them all.

Jesus told us, in regards to the world being upset with us, that we should not be surprised, because it really is not we who they are upset with, but Him (1 Peter 4:12, 1 John 3:13ff, John 15:18- 21). Furthermore, when we begin to hear criticisms of us because of our message, it just may be a powerful evidence that we have spoken our message clear enough to be understood, thus bringing about a reaction. After all, this is the very reason so many were so upset with Jesus that they crucified Him. So be encouraged. The criticism by others may not be because you did it wrong or were not loving enough, or were too harsh, or whatever, but it may be because you were effective and thus God used you to prick their conscience.

Clark County Humane Society's Pet of the Week

"TESSA"

Tessa is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

Tessa is a 3-year old Hound mix and she weighs 36#. She has a pretty short-haired coat that is brown with white trim and black on her muzzle. She also has beautiful and sensitive brown eyes as well as soft ears.

Tessa is a smart girl who is doing well with her house training and crate training. She is a personable girl who likes to participate in whatever is going on around her. She will do best in a home without very young children or cats, as they are just too much fun to chase. She does love to burrow under her blankets at bedtime. She loves to be with people and is just a nice size to add to your family.

If you'd love to have a new friend for the Holidays, Tessa could be just what you are looking for! You can submit your adoption application on our website: www.cchs-petshelter.org/applying-to-adopt.

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: <https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer> or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com. Come join our CCHS volunteer family!
