AND GOD SAYS . . .

Jesus said, “If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.” Luke 16:31.

Jesus spoke the above words at the conclusion of a parable about a rich man and Lazarus, who was a beggar. In the parable, both die. After death, Lazarus is taken by an angel to Abraham’s side, where he is comforted. But the rich man ends up in the torment of hell. He looks up and sees Lazarus in comfort at Abraham’s side and, because he is in such agony, he begs Abraham to send Lazarus to place a drop of water on his tongue.

But because Abraham told him that no one can cross the gulf that is between them, the rich man pleads for Abraham to send someone to warn his five brothers about the torments of hell. In response the rich man is told that they wouldn’t listen anyway. In fact, he said that they would not even listen if someone rose from the dead and told them.

So, what conclusions can we draw from this parable?

1. It is not God’s fault that people will end up in hell. He does not send them there. They chose to go there when they rejected the witness God has already sent them.
2. It is not the prophet’s fault that people do not respond. It is not because their witness was not clear enough, compassionate enough, or for any other reason. Nor is it your fault that people do not respond. It is their hardness of heart.
3. Even if God works great miracles, people will not believe. Jesus did great miracles and instead of repenting, they accused him of doing the miracles by the power of Satan. Luke 11:15.
4. Even if God pours out His wrath upon mankind so that 1/3 of mankind is killed by a plague, they still will not repent. Revelation 9:20-21.
5. Even the fact that Jesus rose from the dead is not enough to convince people to repent.

So do not lose heart because you think your witness is not good enough. It probably is not you at all but the hardness of their heart that keeps them from responding. You are only the messenger delivering God’s message. It is God the Holy Spirit who empowers His message to be received. So be encouraged. Ask God to reveal the truth you share to those that you share it with. It is He who does it.
