BARN OWL

A MORE PERFECT UNION

The mid-term elections bring a new majority to Congress, chosen by voters who sent them with new instructions.
Voters have asked Congress to bring the corruption of this administration to an end and to fix the rise in prices for food, housing, health care and gasoline.

The writers of the United States Constitution started our experiment. They wanted a government that would represent the people and avoid the problems of European nations ruled by kings. They hoped to create a government that would protect people's life, liberty and pursuit of happiness.

But experiments are never perfect. The fight between those who wanted to preserve slavery and those who wanted it to end resulted in a War that, in many ways, still continues. The founders also were not sure if they fully trusted ordinary people to elect the president. So, they created an Electoral College that has complicated our elections and has, on occasion, left us with a president who won the Electoral College vote – but not the popular vote of the nation's people.

The path to a "more perfect union" has been, in part a struggle over the question: Who should have a voice in American government? Huge social and political movements have brought the changes we see in democracy today.

- Black men gained the right to vote in 1870 with the 15th amendment. But because of the Jim Crow laws and suppression of black communities, the 1965 Voting Rights Act had to be passed to protect their right to vote.
- Women won the right to vote in 1920 with the 19th Amendment. It was first introduced in Congress in 1878 and took over 40 years of struggle to become law.
- Until the passage of the 17th amendment in 1913, state legislatures chose U.S senators. Afterwards, voters, the common people in each state, elected their Senators.
- Amendment 26, passed in 1971, lowered the voting age from 21 to 18.

Now, we have another chance to create yet a more perfect union. The 15th, 17th, 19th and 26th amendments allowed more Americans to participate in our democracy. Our nation has also been made better by inclusion of labor unions, the 8-hour day, minimum wage, public schools, Medicare, Medicaid, Veteran's Benefits and Social Security. Each allowed more opportunity for normal people to enjoy the benefits of our wealthy nation and its democracy.

We are entering now, another phase in the American Experiment. It will require citizens to remain vigilant and be sure to tell their representatives how they want America to change.

AND GOD SAYS...

The men of Israel hid in caves and thickets, among the rocks, and in cellars and cisterns. (1 Samuel 13:6)

Kris Kubal, IFA Chief Program Officer, deeply concerned about the spiritual and political condition of America, writes:

There are moments when silence carries consequences. I believe the American Church is living in one of those moments right now.

For too many years, Christians were told that faithful citizenship and biblical engagement with government were somehow outside the proper boundaries of the Church. Pastors were warned away from subjects that might be considered "political. " Congregations learned to separate what happened on Sunday morning from what happened at the ballot. (box.https://ifapray.org/blog/how-would-our-founders-vote-in-these-midterms/)

As I was reading through 1 Samuel this week, I was struck by the parallel between the present condition in America and that of Israel under the reign of King Saul. In Saul's time the Israelites were terrified of the Philistines. Only King Saul and his son, Jonathon, had swords to defend themselves. The Philistines continually mocked and threatened them. Thus the Israelites kept their heads down and avoided any conflict with the Philistines at almost any cost.

Fast forward to the state of the church in America. It seems that the church is almost as silent as the Israelites were in the days of King Saul. It is hiding in plain site, fitting in with the godless culture, and in many cases, even endorsing it. It metaphorically keeps it's head down to avoid as much conflict with the world as possible.

And what was the result for Israel? The kingdom fell. It makes me wonder, what will be the fate of America as a result of the silence and lack of involvement of the church in our country's future?

Clark County Humane Society's Pet of the Week

"TOFFEE"

Toffee is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

This beautiful tricolor Australian Shepherd mix came to us through an Amish rescue, and she's ready to start her next chapter. At just 12 weeks old, Toffee is a little lady with a mellow side. She currently weighs 30# and is just beautiful with her fluffy white, brown and black coat. She also has one blue eye and one brown eye! While she's still a growing puppy with plenty to learn, she has a head start on being a wonderful companion. She's looking for a family who can help her navigate puppyhood, teach her all the important things, and give her a lifetime of love. If you're looking for a sweet little addition to your family, Toffee might be just the girl you've been waiting for! You can submit your adoption application for Toffee on our website: www.cchs-petshelter.org/applying-to-adopt.

Save the Date! Santa and Mrs. Claus are returning to CCHS this year for our annual Pet Pictures with Santa & Mrs. Claus! They will be at the Shelter on December 5th from 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. They do a wonderful job and are happy to take pictures with all kinds of pets, from cats and dogs to rats and goats! Pictures are then available for purchase as prints, email or on a flash drive. So bring your pets and make some great Holiday memories! More details are available on our website.

All of us at CCHS wish you and your family a safe and happy Thanksgiving Holiday.
