Doing illegal things

President Trump has legal protection for things he does while serving as president. It's called IMMUNITY. The US Supreme Court made him immune from prosecution, which stopped all federal cases against him. If he had lost the election in 2024, he could have faced jail time for 34 felony convictions. While he remains president, he cannot be prosecuted for things he did before or most actions he takes while in office.

What about the people who follow his orders?

Steve Bannon, a Trump ally, spoke to a conservative group in November. He said "I will tell you right now, as God is my witness, if we lose the midterms and we lose 2028, some in this room are going to prison—myself included,"

Trump is doing things that are against the law. He bypassed congress - the part of our government that makes laws - to fire federal employees and shut down entire government agencies days after starting his second term. These Agencies were created by Congress, and Congress is the only power with the legal right to close them.

Trump stopped payments that were already approved by Congress for programs Congress created. This was illegal. Republican members of Congress looked the other way and did not demand he follow the law. The Trump Administration and his staff also accepted money and gifts from foreign governments and corporations, violating the Emoluments Clause of Article 1 of our constitution. The clause says government officials cannot accept money or gifts from other countries. They know accepting that money is illegal.

If any of those involved in these acts is ever brought in front of a judge and questioned about it, perhaps they might say, "I was just following orders". This is known as the Nuremberg Defense and it did not work for Nazi leaders after World War II.

Trump might stay safe from punishment because of his immunity, but those who helped him break the law can be in trouble. In this case, it would be wise for his supporters to do everything in their power to not ever be prosecuted. That could mean preventing any other political power from ever taking control of government and the Department of Justice.

In the coming years we will likely see many people doing what it takes to never be prosecuted. One way to do that is to be sure the elections go their way, even if done illegally. We have to make sure the elections are fair, under state control and not controlled by armed troops.

AND GOD SAYS . . .

Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe, for our “God is a consuming fire.” (Hebrews 12:28-29)

Last Sunday in our Sunday School Class, we were discussing David's order to kill the Amalekite who had killed King Saul. The Amalekite explained that he did it only because the king, who was already wounded and didn't want to be taken prisoner by the Philistines and abused, asked him to. After some discussion, one lady commented that she felt the judgment was excessively violent and was troubled by that. She believed the judgment didn't fit the crime.

In this short column it is impossible to properly answer her concerns, but I would like to make a couple observations.

First, I think her comment reflects the shift in our culture to have sympathy for the accused rather than the victim. I'll leave you to think through this trend.

Secondly, her comment possibly reflects a current emphasis of teaching in the church. Someone once said that the over-emphasis of “Jesus Savior, Gentle Shepherd,” was slowly distorting the believers' balanced concept of God, especially, the holiness of God.

One of the earliest revelations of the holiness of God was in Genesis when God told Adam, “The day you eat of [the fruit], you will certainly die” (Genesis 2:17). God didn't need a lawyer to spell this out more clearly or definitively. A specific tree, a specific act, a specific consequence. No questions. No extenuating circumstances. No grounds for appeal. You eat, you die. Adam ate. Adam, and all that he was to rule over, now die.

No exceptions. This reflects on more than God as a righteous judge. It reflects on his holiness, his separateness, his uniqueness. God is holy. This means that there is no trace of anything that can corrupt his nature or violate his existence, his being. Therefore, because of God's holiness he has absolutely no tolerance of sin. The penalty for sin is death, which is exactly why Jesus, who was without sin, had to die for us so that we could be saved. That's why Scripture declares that “we are hidden with Christ in God” (Colossians 3:4). Christ Jesus is our only hope for life.

Clark County Humane Society's Pet of the Week

"ELIZABETH"

Elizabeth is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

Elizabeth came to CCHS with her 2 sisters and 5 brothers from a local farm earlier this November. This beautiful Mini Bernese Mountain Dog mix is about 9 weeks old and weighs roughly 7.4# currently. Elizabeth is a sweet and curious little pup! She is constantly cocking her head as she takes in everything that she sees and hears. While we aren't entirely certain what her exact breed makeup is, we can tell you she is absolutely adorable! She is just beautiful with her soft black, white and tan coat, including gorgeous fluffy ears. With any puppy, training and socialization are incredibly important to the success of the pup. Elizabeth promises to bring lots of love and smiles to her new family. If you'd like to have her share in your life, please apply to adopt her today!

SAVE A SHELTER PET!

Save the Date! Santa and Mrs. Claus are returning to CCHS this year for our annual Pet Pictures with Santa & Mrs. Claus! They will be at the Shelter on December 6th from 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. They do a wonderful job and are happy to take pictures with all kinds of pets, from cats and dogs to rats and goats! Pictures are then available for purchase as prints, email or on a flash drive. So bring your pets and make some great Holiday memories! More details are available on our website.
