AND GOD SAYS . . .

We hope you have a MERRY CHRISTMAS and that you will have a HAPPY NEW YEAR

Please do not take this expression as a mere cliché, because it is not meant that way at all.

For some a “merry” Christmas may mean an uninhibited party. For others it may mean lots of gifts. And for others it may mean the family is together once again. However, I have used it in a different sense. My heart’s desire is that regardless of the circumstances of your Christmas, you would know the joy of Christ as Savior and Lord. In fact, in many ways parties, gifts, and even family may be only a temporary, superficial substitute for the fulness, peace and joy that come through a personal relationship with God through Jesus Christ our Lord. It is truly overwhelming to think how great God’s love is for us. He never wavered from His plan to send His Son to reveal Himself to us even though He knew from the beginning it would mean His Son would die for us. He willingly did this for you and me to pay the price for our sin so that we can spend eternity with Him in heaven. It is that settled joy that bad circumstances cannot take away. It is the joy that comes from the assurance of God’s great love for use— that we are special to Him and are wanted and loved by Him.

And, as for a Happy New Year, I am not writing about happy times necessarily, although I do hope you have many of them. But I am speaking more in terms of the way the Bible speaks of happiness or being blessed. One of the words used in the Bible for blessed means happiness. For example in Matthew 5:3-11, the word used by Jesus when he says, “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven” is a Greek word that also means happy.

Thus when I say “Have a Happy New Year” I mean I hope your year is blessed by God in all you do. My blessing on you is that God would lavish His blessings on you as you delight in Him.
