Today I want to take a moment to celebrate someone who has been a huge part of our salon's story. After 17 years of loyalty, hard work, and dedication, Sam is beginning a new chapter and renting a chair at another salon to pursue her own business. I'm incredibly proud of her for taking this step and excited to see her continue to grow in her career.

It's rare to have someone stay with you from the very beginning, and I'm grateful for every year we've worked side by side. Sam has been a steady, positive presence in our salon family, and she will always be part of our history here.

To the clients who have supported Sam over the years—I will truly miss seeing you in our space. Please know that you are always welcome at Studio 107, whether it's for a service, a visit, or just to say hello. Our doors and hearts remain open.

Wishing Sam all the success and happiness in this next chapter. Here's to growth, courage, and new beginnings.

BARN OWL

CHURCH AND STATE

The founding fathers of the U.S.A. did not live during the THIRTY YEARS WAR, but they knew about it.

The Thirty Years War was fought in central Europe between 1618 and 1648. Historians believe that 4.5 to 8 million people died from battle, famine and disease. In some parts of Germany, half the population was lost.

This was a war about religion. Catholic nations including the Holy Roman Empire, Spain and France fought against Protestant nations that had formed during the Protestant reformation of the 1500s, including much of Germany and Sweden. Armies marched and fought across central Europe. Towns and cities were burned. Farms and crops were destroyed. The countryside was left empty. Hired soldiers, mercenaries, took food and supplies from local people. Their governments fell apart. Hunger and disease killed millions.

The war finally ended in 1648 with the PEACE OF WESTPHALIA. Leaders from 109 different groups talked for 6 years before they reached an agreement. New borders were made between many countries. But one of the most important changes was about religion. Before this time, if a king changed his religion, the people in his country were forced to change too. The peace agreement ended that law. Groups of people were allowed to choose their own religion and they could not be forced to change.

This was the last great war about religion in Europe.

The writers of the constitution understood the danger of war between religions. They did not want one religion to force its beliefs on everyone else. The First Amendment said that government cannot promote one religion over others. It cannot stop people from practicing their religion. The Amendment did not just protect Christians. It applied to people of all faiths.

This rule was never easy to follow, of course. People have argued about prayer, religion in schools and use of government places for religious events. Different religions have gone to court to protect their rights. But this right is uniquely American, and helps make us a great nation.

Recently, religion's place in government has come under question again. There have been reports that a commander in the current conflict with Iran told his officers to say that "this war is all part of God's divine plan" and part of a religious Armageddon.

The United States was founded on the principle of religious freedom without government control. There have always been those who would like to take that away.

AND GOD SAYS...

“This is what the Lord says: ‘If you can break my covenant with the day and my covenant with the night, so that day and night no longer come at their appointed time, then my covenant with David my servant — and my covenant with the Levites who are priests ministering before me — can be broken and David will no longer have a descendant to reign on his throne.’” (Jeremiah 33:20-21).

The phrase “the appointed time” appears 22 times in the New International Version of the Bible— 18 times in the Old Testament and 4 times in the New Testament. This phrase primarily speaks to the absolute sovereignty of God concerning His redemptive plan. Jeremiah 33: 20-21, quoted above, speaks of the descendant of David, Jesus Christ, who came at the appointed time to be our Savior— and no one could stop Him, though they tried.

Psalm 2 speaks of the world’s attempt to discount and reject God’s anointed one, Jesus, just as the world is trying to do today. But God laughed in scorn at their puny attempts, saying, “I choose the appointed time ... I have installed my King on Zion, my holy hill (Psalm 75:2). ” So it was that though they crucified Him in their attempt to throw off His authority, Jesus rose from the dead and was exalted to the highest authority to the right hand of God, just as hundreds of years earlier God had said He would do.

Friend, Jesus is God’s plan of salvation. And just as God said His Son would be “installed on His holy hill,” so God has declared that His Son is coming back again to judge those who reject Him and to save those who believe on Him. For God said, “If you confess with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved” (Romans 10:9). This same God also said, “It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment” (Hebrews 9:27).

You can believe what you want— that is your choice. But only those who choose God’s way will be saved. The rest will be judged. What is your choice?

Clark County Humane Society's Pet of the Week

“KAYCE”

Kayce is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

Kayce came to CCHS as an owner surrender after schedule changes left not enough time for his family to spend with him. This handsome Husky/Lab mix is just over a year old and weighs roughly 71.5# currently. Kayce is a hardworking, loyal pup that just wants a person of his own to stick to the side of! He doesn't quite fully grasp his size so will do better not being around animals smaller than himself like cats or smaller livestock. Kayce is handsome with a black and light tan coat with warm brown eyes and perky ears. He always seems to have a happy expression on his face, too. We aren't entirely certain what his exact breed makeup is, but we can tell you he is 100% Handsome Man! With any rescue, training and socialization are incredibly important to the success of the pup. Apply for Kayce today! You can submit your adoption application on our website: www.cchs-petshelter.org/applying-to-adopt.

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: <https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer> or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com. Level: Beginner

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle.

What's the Difference?

There are five things different between Picture A and Picture B. Can you find them all?

ANSWERS: 1. Birds in sky 2. Tire missing 3. Groom has eyebrow 4. Groom has goatee 5. Bride's veil is missing

Jokes & Riddles

- Q. What did the egg say to the other egg?

A. Let's get cracking!
- Q. What do you say to a cow that crosses in front of your car?

A. Moo-ve over.
- Q. Why did the turtle cross the road?

A. To get to the Shell Station!
- Q. How do you know if there's an elephant under your bed?

A. You bump your nose on the ceiling.
- Q. What would you call a sleeping bull?

A. A bulldozer.
- Q. Why do cows have bells?

A. Because their horns don't work.
- Q. What did Mickey say when Minnie asked if he was listening?

A. I'm all ears!
- Q. How can you make seven even?

A. Remove the "S".
- Q. Did you hear about the two silkworms who had a race?

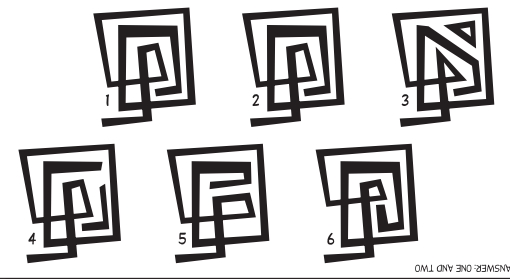

A. It ended in a tie.

Outdoor lover & OB nurse

My time is shared between the outdoors and the delivery room, where I embrace both my love for hunting and caring for others as a labor & delivery nurse.

I'm proud to help laboring moms in the community I grew up in, where we offer:

- One-on-one nursing
- Personal pain management
- Breastfeeding support
- Family-centered, deluxe birthing suites

At Black River Health, I'm part of a small-town team with big-time care.
