BARN OWL

WHAT IS A PATRIOT?

In the Revolutionary War, a Patriot was the person who challenged the king's rule. This sometimes was a person who spoke their mind even at risk of death or imprisonment. Some joined the Colonial Army and fought the king's forces. Many other patriots were not soldiers or politicians. Some gave food or a safe place to hide. Some stitched uniforms and flags. Some cared for the wounded. Others quietly did small things each day to help the cause.

People who fought the patriots and wanted to keep their king were called Loyalists.

Oddly, "patriot" and "loyalist" mean similar things. In the Cambridge dictionary, a Patriot is "a person who loves their country and, if necessary, will fight for it." A Loyalist is "a person that strongly supports the government or ruler in power." The difference seems to be that a patriot defends their country while a loyalist defends their government and its leaders.

Many times, in America, people have asked: who are the patriots and who might be loyalists?

- Were the organizers of the Underground Railroad, helping slaves escape to freedom, patriots? They broke the law, but they believed they would help make the country a better place.
- Were the workers who built the labor unions in the 1930's and 40's patriots, because they wanted a better life for working people? Or were they just Communists?
- Were those who fought for civil rights in the 1950's and 1960's patriots? Or were they outside agitators and trouble makers?
- During the Vietnam War, some people called protestors patriots because they eventually forced the government to withdraw American troops.
- Trump supporters who stormed the U.S. Capital January 6 to change the results of the election – saw themselves as patriots. Were they? Or Loyalists?
- Finally, can those who organized against and resisted I.C.E. in Minneapolis and other cities in this last year be called patriots?

When the events are happening right now, the question become more emotional. There are arguments, lies and accusations. That is also how it was during the Revolutionary War. With distance, these moments in history become clearer. The questions are fought out in the courts and in elections and, sadly, sometimes with violence.

In the end, a patriot must be one who helps make a better country and a better place for us all to live.

AND GOD SAYS . . .

You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, ... but the end is still to come .... “Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me .... Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, but he who stands firm to the end will be saved. (Matthew 24:6-13)

Conflicts with Iran and Venezuela. A Cold War with China. Foreign terrorists within our borders. The national security threats to the United States continue to pile up. (Heritage Organization, Virginia Haggerty).

Over 7,100 Nigerian Christians were slaughtered just last year. Over 120,000 Christians have been murdered since 2009 in Nigeria. (ACLI)

Governor Gavin Newsom’s wife publicly attacked “Evangelical conservatives” for destroying America. At the same time, Newsom has been attacking the Church – levying over one million dollars in fines against a single church for how it worshiped during the pandemic. (Jordan Sekulow, ACLJ).

These news items are just the tip of the iceberg exposing what has been happening in our world in fulfillment of these prophecies that were made personally by Jesus in Matthew 24. As I read what is going on in our world in the light of the prophecies concerning the second coming of Christ as redeemer and judge of the world— too numerous to mention here— I cannot help but come to the conclusion that his coming is awfully close. The old argument that these things have always been happening just doesn’t hold water with close scrutiny. Never in the history of humanity have all these things applied on a world-wide scale like they have today. And never have single, end time prophecies been fulfilled as they have today, such as Israel becoming a nation.

But regardless of how soon Jesus is coming back to earth, it is absolute that he is. And when he does, he will eternally redeem those who put their faith in him and he will eternally condemn those who do not. The only question yet unresolved is, to which group do you belong?

Thank You

We’d like to thank all of the volunteers who showed up on Saturday and Sunday morning, without hesitation, after the tornado flipped our worlds upside down on Friday evening April 17th. We are all simply speechless, teary eyed, and overwhelmed by the outpouring of generosity. Many familiar faces and just as many strangers came with chainsaws in hand asking: where do you want me to start? They gave up their weekend and made the devastation a bit easier to handle in the moment. Jackson Electric had our power restored by 5am Saturday morning. The Rustic Buck of Pray, the UCC of Neillsville, and Dominoes of BRF all showed up with food and water to feed these amazing volunteers. We are forever grateful and in the words of a late and great friend from BRF “you people are Totally Awesome!”

Honey is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

Honey came into CCHS as an owner surrender earlier this April after her owner was finding it difficult to keep up with her care. This beautiful Poodle mix is about 8 months old and weighs roughly 37.2# currently. She is super cute with her curly gray and white coat. Honey is as sweet as her name suggests! She has a constant wag in her tail and smile across her face. She just can’t wait to find her furever family to share her joy with! We can’t say we know for certain what her exact breed makeup is, but we can tell you she is 100% Northern Wisconsin Smiling Snuggler! With any rescue, training and socialization are incredibly important to the success of the pup. Apply for Honey today! She could be the new best friend you’ve been looking for! You can submit your adoption application on our website: www.cchs-petshelter.org/applying-to-adopt.

Right now we have an April Adoption Special going on at CCHS! For the month of April, most of our adult dogs have an adoption fee of $100. That’s right, you could adopt a great dog for just $100! We simply want these amazing, loveable dogs to find their furever homes. Regular adoption policies and procedures still apply. The participating dogs are shown on our website, cchs-petshelter.org, where you can also submit your adoption application. So check them out and apply to adopt your new friend today!
