AND GOD SAYS...

But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. For people will be lovers of self . . . , arrogant, abusive . . . , ungrateful . . . , heartless, unappeasable, slanderous . . . , without self-control, brutal . . . , treacherous, reckless . . . Avoid such people (2 Timothy 3:1-5, ESV ).

Sometime ago I read an article describing the "progressive." I still remember its main theme, namely that the progressive was one, who, no matter what he gains or whatever concessions were made to him, it was never enough. A progressive always wants more. He is never satisfied, never content.

As I read the list of dominant character traits of the culture of the last days in the passage above, "unappeasable" stood out above all the rest. When I read that I thought, "That is the main trait of a "progressive."

The Greek word for "unappeasable" is translated in a variety of ways in the various translations (i.e., truce breakers, unforgiving, irreconcilable, uncooperative, relentless (admitting of no truce or appeasement), bitter haters, implacable, without peace, will refuse to forgive anyone, merciless). The root meaning of the Greek word is "without libation usually accompanying a treaty." It describes one who is willing to make a treaty but is unwilling to seal that treaty with any kind of promise. It is one who will say anything to get his way but has no intention of honoring what he says.

Brooker T. Washington describes the progressive well. He said: "There is a class of race problem solvers who make a business of keeping the troubles, the wrongs and the hardships of the Negro race before the public .... Some of these people do not want the Negro to lose his grievances because they do not want to lose their jobs .... They don't want the patient to get well .... Great men cultivate love ... only little men cherish a spirit of hatred" (Up From Slavery, 1901).

The same can be said for the people like the proponents of abortion, lawlessness, sexual immorality, immodesty, etc. The truth is, we cannot compromise with unrighteous demands. Evil is unsatiable, always wanting more because it can never satisfy.

But understand this, the only One who can satisfy and give us peace within is Jesus Christ, the righteous one. This peace can be ours only if we will admit that He is right and we are wrong.

BARN OWL

IF YOU WON A MILLION

What would you do if you won ONE MILLION DOLLARS?
Would it really change you?

Most of us would celebrate, take a trip, throw a party. We would pay off our bills. We may pay off our parent's and children's bills, and put aside money for grandchildren. When we have spent our million, we still may need to work, but maybe less. And we would have helped ourselves and the people we love.

Imagine winning TEN MILLION DOLLARS. Buy a fancier house and a hotter car. Give more to your family and make bigger donations to charities. Travel the world. Start a business or help someone else start one. Most people's needs for life have surely been met.

By then you are rich – but you aren't super-rich. What happens when you have a Billion dollars? Or 100 billion? Then you are in the tiniest percentage of world population. Way on top.
Many of those at the very top have a different motivation than the rest of us.

In an article in The Atlantic, Noah Hawley describes his experience with the super-rich and what happens when you reach that level of wealth. Research in Psychology has shown that moral reasoning develops when you have consequences, when you have to adapt to reality. Wealthy people don't have that pressure. Their environment stops teaching them the things that poorer people are forced to learn. When you can buy yourself out of any mistake and surround yourself with people who will always agree with you, you lose the ability to learn from your actions.

You feel invulnerable. At that point, everything is free – and nothing has to matter. With a huge cushion of wealth, there are no consequences. You can buy anything you want and anything you lose would still not change your global status. Not with that much money. Failure stops meaning anything.

These are the folks that run our lives. They sell us our food and our cars. They give us news and entertainment. They buy up our farms. They close factories in our town. They also buy politicians.
Democracy is of no importance to them.
But it is to us.

Voting and resistance are the only way that we, collectively, can provide the wealthiest with consequences. It is our collective action that can bring them back to reality.
And reality isn't such a bad place. We will share it.

Pet of the Week

"LEA"
Lea is the
CCHS Pet of the Week!

Lea came to CCHS as an owner surrender with another dog, after their owner's health started making it difficult to keep up with them and their care. This gentle Great Pyrenees mix is about 5 years old and weighs roughly 94.7# currently. Lea is a gentle giant through and through! She's got a sweetness to her soul that is almost magnetic! Lea would benefit from a furever family that understands her breed's grooming and exercise needs. Lea is a very pretty girl with her fluffy soft white coat with tan on her ears. We aren't entirely certain what her exact breed makeup is, but we can tell you she is 100% Great Gal! With any rescue, training and socialization are incredibly important to the success of the pup. Apply for Lea today! She is all ready to start the next chapter in her future. You can submit your adoption application on our website: www.cchs-petshelter.org/applying-to-adopt.

SAVE A SHELTER PET!

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: <https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer> or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com.
