AND GOD SAYS...

“Heaven is My throne, and earth is My footstool” Isaiah 66:1

Several pictures pop into my mind as I read this Scripture. First, I picture God at rest on that first Sabbath after creation with his feet resting on the earth. He has completed his creation and lays back to enjoy it. The picture speaks of the completeness of his creation. It is done. There is nothing more need be done. It is “very good.”

Secondly, I see a picture of majesty. The dwelling place of God is not in outer space. It is beyond that. It is in the “heaven of heavens” (I Kings 8:27, I Corinthians 12:4). This speaks of his majesty, his infiniteness, his absolute authority and control over all creation, not only over the earth, but also of all outer space (Colossians 1:15-17).

Thirdly, it speaks of God's absolute provision for every need and circumstance. He is not merely being a laissez-faire landlord, relaxing with his feet on his footstool, but a ruler who has every eventuality already cared for even before it happens. He never has to play catch-up. He is never caught off-guard. He never has to revert to plan-B. In fact Psalm 2 speaks of the world leaders planning the overthrow of God's authority. God's response is to laugh at them in their feeble attempts. Then he installs his king on his holy hill and there is nothing they can do about it.

And lastly, this brings me to another picture, not of resting his feet on a footstool, but of placing his foot on the neck of his defeated foe. In the last days the Bible speaks of a great and final Battle called the Battle of Armageddon (Revelation 16:16). This battle represents the final cosmic battle between the forces of good and evil. Satan summons all the nations of the earth to come together to war against Jesus and all who are faithful to him. But Jesus will utterly defeat them and completely destroy them. He will then establish a new heaven and a new earth and reign over his righteous followers forever.

Though it may seem like it sometimes, God is never not in control. He is a good God who will work everything together for good (Romans 8:28), accomplishing his purposes for his glory and our good. Ours is just to wait for him and trust in him. He will do it.

PROJECT 2025

In the September 2024 debates, candidate Donald Trump said “I have nothing to do with Project 2025. That’s out there. I haven’t read it.” We later learned that was not true.

The “Mandate of Leadership: The Conservative Promise” – better known as Project 2025 – is a 900+ page document. A team of right-wing lawyers and politicians wrote it in 2022. The project was led by Paul Dans, a lawyer who worked in Trump’s first White House. He was chosen by the Heritage Foundation, a powerful right-wing think tank, to do the work.

The group’s goal was to put together a plan for a new Republican administration. Project 2025 showed the steps needed to change the U.S. government. The writers wanted to stop doing politics the old way. They wanted a system with a weak legislature, controlled only by the president. They didn’t just want to get their policies and laws passed. They wanted a new type of government that reflected conservative Christian values.

Once he moved back into office, Trump and his administration moved quickly to put in changes that matched what was written in Project 2025. Since a large independent federal bureaucracy could not be controlled by the President, they began to close it down. They fired over 350,000 government workers. They cut minorities and women out of leadership roles and put in people loyal to the president. They broke down the public health, scientific and medical systems. They cut out international aid programs and looked for ways to remove brown and black foreign workers from the country. They stopped all climate research and opened up wildlife areas to oil production and mining.

This was all done quickly and against established rules that were in place. They moved faster than the people, their government or the courts could move to stop them. The Republican legislature quietly supported the changes, or were too afraid to speak up.

It was all laid out ahead of time. The steps listed in Project 2025 were followed. The right wing saw this as their chance to move backwards - a counter-revolution. They wanted to go back to when kings and strong men ran government without the interference of democracy, before labor could organize and people of color and women could vote. They wanted to move quickly to stop any resistance.

As Kevin Roberts, president of the Heritage Foundation, said in the summer of 2024: “We are in the process of the second American Revolution.” This revolution, he added, “will remain bloodless if the left allows it.”

Weston, the son of Nick and Andrea Kyser, was recently diagnosed at six months of age with Krabbe Disease, a rare and terminal genetic disorder that affects the brain. This life-changing diagnosis brings not only an emotional toll for all who know and love Weston, but also a significant financial burden for his family.

Weston's care will require specialized equipment, ongoing medications, and travel to see medical specialists. In addition, his parents will face lost income as they take time away from work to care for him.

THANK YOU FOR COMING TOGETHER TO SUPPORT WESTON AND THE KYSER FAMILY!
