AND GOD SAYS...

Did you ever notice how easy it is to judge someone on their appearance? It is natural to do so. Therefore, it is certainly important how we look and dress. One time, while I was in college, I didn't get a position because I was not dressed appropriately for the interview. I was told it only takes 15 seconds to make a first impression, and that impression is largely based on how we look.

I also know that we misuse God's Word when God says through His prophet, "Man looks on the outward appearance, but God looks on the heart" (1 Samuel 16:7). This does not mean that God thinks outward appearance is unimportant. It is only saying that the most important thing about a person to God is not how big and strong they are but what is in their heart— that is, the kind of person they are. David was a man after God's own heart, Saul wasn't, even though he was big and looked impressive. But this statement is not saying that we shouldn't be concerned about the way we dress or about our personal hygiene.

God was very concerned about the garments the priests wore, about their modesty, about their cleanliness and appearance. Furthermore, look at the attention to detail God displays when he clothes the birds of the air and the lilies of the field. While God demonstrates that he is very concerned with our appearance, He values our inward person even more.

I might add that the Bible also says "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he" (Proverbs 23:7). That means what a person really believes will show up outwardly, in his dress and actions. That is why we make our initial judgment from the outward appearance, That is not wrong or right, it is just plain fact.

God says, we are to shine like stars in the universe (Philippians 2:15). And, it stands to reason then, that as men look at the stars and use them for navigational purposes, we need to be very attentive to the way we look and act so that we might guide others to Christ well.

Outward appearance is so important that book publishers spend a great deal of time and money designing book covers, because they know an attractive cover sells books. So doesn't it stand to reason that we as Christians, who are "declared to be the [living] epistle (letter or book) of Christ," should purpose to dress and act in a way that draws others to our faith in Christ.

BARN OWL

THE CIVIC RELIGION OF THE U.S.

The Christian religious right insists that the United States was founded as a Christian Nation. They want the government to support their specific expression of Christianity. They select specific biblical teachings that they expect the government to uphold and even enforce.

This is not what America was ever planned to be. The United States of America was not created as a Christian nation. While most of the founders practiced Christianity, they wanted a secular state. They were very clear about that.

Historian Heather Cox Richardson, wrote about an important event from 1796. Ten years after the constitution was approved, the U.S. made a treaty with the Muslim government of Tripoli. The treaty was to protect American ships from Barbary Pirates in the Mediterranean Sea.

The Senate approved the Treaty of Tripoli without debate. In the treaty, U.S. leaders said "the government of the United States of America is not in any sense founded on the Christian Religion" and has no hatred towards Muslims or their religion. With these words America announced to the world it was a secular nation – a government that would not support one religion over another.

American patriots like Thomas Jefferson and James Madison believed government needed to be separate from religion. Madison believed that establishing a state religion attacked the basic unalienable right that people had – to freedom to follow their conscience. If one group forced its religion on everyone else, there could be no democracy.

The nation's founders and leaders of later generations, wanted Americans to revere the nation's main political values instead of one religion. These values included self-government, freedom and the checks and balances in government. We learned these values in school. We recited the pledge of allegiance. The core beliefs of "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" became a kind of civic religion for Americans. It taught Americans the rights and duties of being citizens. Our commitment has been to "We the People," not to one religion.

Some political and religious group in this county expect obedience from the people. But America was never designed to be a place where we just obey our leaders. Americans were expected to speak up, debate, to disagree with leaders and vote for new ones when needed.

Dictators and tyrants expect that, but we know better.

Weston, the son of Nick and Andrea Kyser, was recently diagnosed at six months of age with Krabbe Disease, a rare and terminal genetic disorder that affects the brain. This life-changing diagnosis brings not only an emotional toll for all who know and love Weston, but also a significant financial burden for his family.

Weston's care will require specialized equipment, ongoing medications, and travel to see medical specialists. In addition, his parents will face lost income as they take time away from work to care for him.

THANK YOU FOR COMING TOGETHER TO SUPPORT
WESTON AND THE KYSER FAMILY!
