Clark County Humane Society's
Pet of the Week

"HERSHEY"

Hershey is the
CCHS Pet of the Week!

Hershey came to CCHS when he was found as a stray in the Hatfield area. Hershey is 2 years old and weighs 41#. He is very handsome with a medium-length tri-color coat and warm brown eyes. We really don't know what breed combination he is, so we're just calling him a "Mixed Breed". Hershey is a bit of a baby! He's been pretty shy since coming to CCHS. At first he didn't even want to come out of his kennel. He's gotten a lot better and now enjoys getting out to go for walks, usually with a smile on his face. But he will still do best with a calm and quiet home where he won't be overwhelmed. We expect that once he falls in love with his new family, he will be tightly bonded forever. With any dog, training and socialization are incredibly important to the success of the dog. Apply for Hershey today! You can submit your adoption application on our website: www.cchs-petshelter.org/applying-to-adopt. We have lots of wonderful pets available for adoption now, so please check them all out online and then stop in to visit!

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: <https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer> or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com. Come join our CCHS volunteer family!

BARN OWL

IN THE ONE HUNDRED BILLION DOLLAR CLUB

Some of the richest people in the world aren't always healthy or sane. They have different beliefs from the rest of us. They have no idea what life is like for a person in the working class and don't know that their experience is shared by just a tiny number of Americans.

A group of personality traits called the "DARK TRIAD" exist in the minds of many of the very, very rich. Psychologist Roy Eidelson explained these traits in Psychology Today:

1. Machiavellianism (tricking and exploiting others)

2. Psychopathy (not caring what others may feel or need)

3. Narcissism (believing you're better than everybody else and deserve more rewards)

These traits exist in people of all income levels. But when they are in the top 1%, their huge wealth lets them play by their own rules. They can pay off politicians, buy votes, own a judge or two and hire a battalion of lawyers.

Rich technocrats like Elon Musk, Peter Thiel, and David Sacks - the "PayPal Mafia," - are some of the most influential figures in tech and politics. They don't just own companies—they control political candidates, and new technologies. For them, democracy is not a tool for opportunity—it just gets in the way.

Peter Thiel once said, "I no longer believe that freedom and democracy are compatible,"

They also have a shared belief that they alone should decide the future of the world.

A March 15, 2025 article by Don Knight explains that the tech world attracts neurodivergent thinkers, especially those on the autism spectrum. These people can focus deeply and think differently. But this has a dark side. They often look to drugs to raise their consciousness, improve their creativity and help with problem-solving. Drugs like Ketamine, Adderall, and small doses of psychedelics are used to stay productive and creative. But they also cause addiction, bad judgment and dangerous delusions. Frequent use can damage overall mental function.

Ketamine can also reinforce a dangerous illusion of DIVINITY—a genuine belief in being a GOD.

For decades there were rules to stop the super-rich from taking over all power. Most of those rules have slowly been taken down. If we allow it, the game will be theirs entirely.

AND GOD SAYS . . .

I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth. . . . Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light. It is not surprising, then, if his servants masquerade as servants of righteousness. (3 John 4; 2 Cor 11:14-15 NIV)

Why didn't John say that his greatest joy would be for his children to be walking in the Lord, rather than "walking in truth?" Is there something here that we are missing? At the very least, we need to understand that both expressions mean the same thing. If you are not walking in truth, you are not walking in the Lord. In other words you cannot follow the masquerading angel of light, and still be walking in truth or in the Lord.

And what might be the single first physical evidence of being deceived? Could it be the acceptance of public nakedness? Before you write me off, please hear me out.

What was the first consequence for sin mentioned in the Bible? It is found in Genesis 3:7. When Adam and Eve sinned against God, the Bible says "Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked." I believe that is a significant revelation.

Animals were created from the ground (Genesis 1:24; 2:19), body and soul, Man was created significantly different, they were created in the image of God, with only the body coming from the ground, but his soul and spirit came directly from God (Genesis 1:26-27:2). The singular description of man after his creation is found in Genesis 2:25, "They were naked and they felt no shame." Why did they feel no shame? I believe they were covered by God's glory so they really didn't even see their nakedness, much like Moses's face after he saw the Lord and was in His presence in the tent of meeting in Exodus 34:29-35. Or like Jesus on the mount of transfiguration (Matthew 17:2).

But when they sinned, that glory departed and they saw clearly they were naked and were ashamed and afraid. That is why God covered them and we have worn clothing ever since. But today, as we have increasingly rejected God, (i.e., truth) in our culture, we have increasingly delighted in exposing our nakedness, and sad to say— even in the church, without shame because we have become so conformed to the "patterns [fashions] of this world" (Colossians 2:8) and desensitized to the Spirit of God. Because something is culturally acceptable doesn't make it right or pleasing to God.
