BARN OWL

THE RULE OF LAW
A member of my village board would not vote on a law that affected downtown businesses. When I asked why, he said "I own a business. That would be a conflict of interest for me to vote on this issue." I thought about this and I was impressed.
This guy was not an attorney, was not ordered by a judge not to vote and did not appeal to the Supreme Court while voting to benefit his business. He did not argue. He knew the laws about conflict of interest were written to keep people in power from cashing in on their position. He knew being elected means serving his community. He knew that it was the fair thing to do. He did the right thing.

NO ONE IS ABOVE THE LAW. That is what The RULE OF LAW means. It touches all levels of our culture and our government.
The law allows us some safety, some freedom and some equality. We believe that laws should be followed and, if they need to be changed, to do it in a lawful way. There are always people who bend or break the law. Many are people in power. We rely on our courts to convict them. We rely on law enforcement to catch them and make sure that what the judge says to do, gets done.

This isn't happening anymore in our federal government.
Since his first day, the president has ordered changes in government without following anyone's rules but his own.
He made changes in government rules and assigned people to make those changes even though they were not legally allowed to do that. He created new ways to interpret our Constitution without asking approval of our courts. The U.S. Supreme Court disagreed with what he planned but he still said he had the authority to do what he wanted. Attorney General Pam Bondi wrote that Trump has the constitutional power not just to ignore laws, but to let others ignore them.
Congressional Republicans, who either support him or are scared of him, do not insist he follow the rules. They have forgotten that Congress is the branch that makes laws – not the President. Law enforcement like the FBI, US Marshalls and the JAG Corps, have been gutted and can't do much to enforce the law.
Now in 2025, the law is being made and then enforced by the President and a small group of men who are not held responsible for their decisions. (At least not yet.)
My Village would not allow this. Why should we accept it from the highest level of government?

AND GOD SAYS . . .
I once dropped off a little kindergarten girl at her home. As she was getting out, I said to her, "Be good."

She said, "I will."

I said, "Behave yourself."

She answered, "I will."

I then said, "Obey your parents."

She replied, "I will."

Finally I said, "Don't fight with your brother."

In response she asked, "Why?" Then, after a moment's reflection, she turned to me and said, "How did you know I fight with my brother?"

As I drove away, I thought, "Out of the mouths of babes truth is spoken." Here it is, as clear as can be. Do you see it? This little girl sees no relationship between being good and not fighting with her brother.

Some time ago, a young man at a youth camp stood up and gave a testimony saying, "I love all of you." But it wasn't more than 15 minutes later he was squared off with another young man, saying "I'm gonna punch your lights out!"

In much the same way, we as Christians, who talk a lot about love, have trouble transferring what we know about love to our daily lives. When crossed, we react. When it doesn't go our way, we complain. We are critical of those who are different than us, look down on those who disagree with us, and have nothing to do with those whose lifestyle includes behaviors that we don't approve of. Yet, all the while, we continue to claim that we love our neighbor. We cannot see the incongruity in our own behavior with our profession of loving them. We are blind to our lack of the love we profess. No wonder so many people believe Christianity is impotent.

May the Lord open our eyes so that we can see our own failures as clear as we see the failures of others and learn to correct them.

Clark County Humane Society's Pet of the Week

"JAYDEN"

Jayden is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

SAVE A SHELTER PET!

Jayden came to CCHS with her 3 sisters towards the beginning of July after their mama had abandoned them in a barn. This beautiful gal is about 10 weeks old and weighs roughly 2.7# currently. Jayden is super cute with her short-haired coat that is white and brown Tabby. She has a dark nose and big, bright eyes, too. Jayden is a high-spirited feline that is always down to play! She is quite curious in nature, and will oftentimes sit back and just observe while she plans her next move! Jayden currently resides in our Kitty City with her 3 sisters and lots of other feline friends. If you're looking for a fun new friend, Jayden could be your girl! You can submit your adoption application right on our website: www.cchs-petshelter.org/applying-to-adopt. We have lots and lots of wonderful pets available for adoption now, especially kittens and puppies, so please check them all out online and then stop in to visit!

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: <https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer> or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com.
